

Quilters' Connection Liaison To The New England Quilt Museum

The job of the Guild Representative is to represent the Museum to the guild and the guild to the Museum. Duties include:

Receive mail from other guilds and the Museum and forward it to the appropriate person in Quilters' Connection.

Inform the Quilters' Connection membership about NEQM events through articles in Quiltations and announcements at guild meetings.

Remind the Board to pay our annual dues to the Museum Auxiliary and to send current information about the guild for the directory.

Inform the Board and membership about the benefits of membership in the Museum Auxiliary.

Represent Quilters' Connection at annual luncheons and other special events for guild representatives at the Museum.
